MARRIAGE REGISTER

OF REV. THEOPHILUS HEILIG, LUTHERAN MINISTER.

1861-1926

This is a copy of another typed copy of Rev. Theophilus Heilig's marriage register preserved in MS. D #20 of The Bucks County Historical Society's manuscript collection. It has been compared with church records and seems to be entirely correct. Rev. Theophilus Heilig became pastor of St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church at Riegelsville, Pa., in May, 1864, and resigned August 26, 1876. After 1877 his records refer to other parishes in which he served as pastor, contain few Bucks County names, and relate mostly to Monroe County.

BRISTOL, PA., METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Methodism in Bucks County dates to the Revolutionary period. In the absence of records that have been scattered, much of the early history of the denomination has been gathered by the late Hon. William Kinsey, of Bristol, who died in August, 1895. In 1827 Mr. Kinsey became a member of the Society and from his grandparents he received this account of the Society. These grandparents were members of the Society and lived well into the Nineteenth Century.

Captain Webb, an itinerant Wesleyan preacher, stopped in Bristol in 1771 on his way to Philadelphia. He preached under a tree that stood on the grounds of the old church on Wood street, and again preached to the people at the same place in 1777. A number were awakened under the preaching of this minister and a Society was organized. Bristol Circuit was established by Bishop Francis Asbury on September 10, 1788. Rev. William Dougherty was the first pastor. His parish then extended from the Philadelphia line to the Pocono Mountains.

The Society worshipped in the old Court House on Cedar street and in private houses until 1802, when a church building became a necessity. The lot had been secured in 1794. It was the ground on which Captain Webb had preached. In 1804 a building was erected and dedicated by Rev. David Bartine.

By reason of a revival in 1827 the membership was largely increased. More room was needed; the church was enlarged. Dr. Henry G. King was then pastor. In 1844, Rev. Joseph Asbril pastor, the old church was torn down and a new one erected, 40 x 60 feet, two stories, costing $7,000. Rev. John Kennedy, D.D., dedicated it in 1845. The church multiplied in numbers and became a very useful Society. Prominent ministers served the circuit and the charge, and Bristol became a station in 1849.

The old church did not possess the facilities for modern times and large congregations. In 1895 Rev. Charles H. Rorer, A.M., became pastor. The lot on Mulberry Street was purchased in July. The lot, including the commodious parsonage, cost $13,000. Ground was broken for a new church August 19, 1895. The cornerstone was placed November 17, 1895, by Dr. S. W. Gehrett and the pastor. The old church property, the ground on which the Methodists had gathered for over ninety years, was used for the last time for general gatherings on July 12, 1896. The pastor preached from Numbers, 23,23. The new chapel was occupied July 19, 1896. The new church auditorium was occupied and the building formally dedicated on October 25, 1896. Bishop C. D. Foss officiated on this occasion.

The building, with its furnishings, cost about $35,000, making the entire cost of the property nearly $50,000. It is built of Holmesburg granite. It is massive, modern and inviting. Charles Walton & Son, of Bensalem, were the builders. L. S. Jacoby of Allentown, Pa., but a Bucks County boy, was the architect. The building committee consisted of John K. Young, Chairman; John G. Street, John B. Yost, Charles M. Foster and Rev. Charles H. Rorer. The church and chapel can be used together to seat 1200 people. At the time it was built it was considered the finest church edifice in Bucks County.

The records quoted herein were obtained by Samuel F. Foster, Newtown, Pa., R.D., from Bristol Methodist Church officials. It appears that either no church registry was regularly kept, or, if kept, some pastors failed to enter their records thereon. Various pastors noted births, deaths, ptisms and marriages on slips of paper, which, in a number of instances, the pastors took with them when transferred by Conference to other charges, and many of such records are now doubtless lost. Some of the loose records that have been saved are found in the following pages. (The original slips are preserved in folder MS. C #59.)
